

McCurtain County Tourism Authority

Advertising Grant Application Guidelines

Introduction

The McCurtain County Tourism Authority (MCTA) is funded by a 3% lodging tax collected exclusively from hotels and lodging facilities located outside city limits. Each city within McCurtain County has its own tourism tax collected within its city limits. This tax, generated solely by visiting tourists, is dedicated to promoting, encouraging, and developing tourism and recreational activities that benefit the county.

Investing in tourism strengthens the local economy and enhances the quality of life for McCurtain County residents.

MCTA Projects must focus on promoting, encouraging, and developing tourism and recreational activities within McCurtain County. The goal is to increase visitation by showcasing local attractions and facilitate engagement in recreational activities.

Breakdown:

- Promote: Actively market and advertise McCurtain County as tourist destinations and recreational offerings through campaigns, websites, and public relations efforts to attract potential visitors.
- Encourage: Foster a positive tourism environment by improving access to attractions and ensuring a welcoming atmosphere for all visitors.
- Develop: Invest in upgrading existing tourism infrastructure, creating new recreational activities, and supporting local businesses that cater to tourism.

Advertising Grant Funding focuses on the “Promote” function of our mission.

Advertising Grant Guidelines and Criteria for Funding

Advertising Grant Funding provides funding assistance is available to support event promotional efforts, particularly for new events. We want you to use this funding to promote your events outside of our county as well as inside. This program is not a source of permanent funding.
