

NOTICE OF POSSIBLE QUORUM

The 2025 Tourism Summit is scheduled for Tuesday, June 17, from 9:00 a.m. to 12:15 p.m. at the Forest Heritage Center Museum meeting room, located inside Beavers Bend State Park on Highway 259A.

Members of the McCurtain County Tourism Authority (MCTA) may attend this summit to gain insight into how tourism is impacting and growing the local economy. While a quorum of board members may be present, no official action will be taken during this event.

This informational summit is hosted by MCTA's advertising agency, Insight Creative Group, and is open to the public. This session will include a presentation and discussion of the findings from a recent Tourism Economics study. Any decisions or actions related to this data presented will be addressed at MCTA's next regular meeting scheduled for July 15, 2025, and not during this informational summit.
